Miss Jones came to the Milledgeville State Hospital (MSH) in 1911 - She replaced Mrs Alice Cross Walker as Superintendent of Nurses.

The school had a two year program until 1916 - Went to a three year program.

Miss Jones married Sydney Jones, Secty of the hospital - No children

The state required a nine months affiliation in a general hospital included in the three year program - Most affiliated at Grady Memorial Hospital, Atlanta, Ga.

The Cadet Corps classes affiliated at The Medical College, Augusta, Ga.

Mrs Jones was a native of Ohio. She taught school a few years then went in training for Nurses. After graduation she came to Milledgeville.

The Milledgeville School for Nurses trained many outstanding young ladies - the school was recognized as one of the best in Georgia

Mrs Jones was regarded as one of the pioneers in Nursing.

Miss Mary Lou Banks, one of the officials holding "State Board Examinations" stated she could pick "MSH" students from other schools just watching them work.

She was a member of the National League of Education. She "pushed" for better education for all students.

She was a truly Professional in manner dress and behavior.

She was strict but fair -

She taught "Nurses Ethics" and required all girls to be strictly ethical with Drs Nurses and Patients.

The employees of Milledgeville State Hospital received Medical and Hospital Care along with their families -

So student and Nurses received a broad section of patient care -

There was no segregation of Patient and employee -

The Hospital had some very special Surgeons, Medical Drs, as well as Psychiatrist.

Mrs Jones stressed membership in School Alumna, District Nurses Association Georgia Nurses Association. and

The National Nurses Association -
All Instructors belonged to and supported the National League of

Miss Jones Came to the Milledgeville replaced Mrs Alice Cross Walker as Superintendent of Nurses.

The school had a two year program until 1916_ Went to a three year program.

Miss Jones married Sydney Jones, Secty

The state required a nine months affiliation in a general Hospital included in the three year program. Most affiliated at Grady Memorial Hospital Atlanta, Ga.

The Cadet Corps Classes Affiliated at The Medical College, Augusta, Ga.

Mrs. Jones was a native of Ohio. She taught school a few years then went in training for nurses. After graduation she came to Milledgeville.

The Milledgeville School for Nurses trained many outstanding young ladies. The school was recognized as one of the best in Georgia.

[Page 109]

96

Mrs. Jones was regarded as one of the pioneers in Nursing.

Miss Mary Lou Banks, one of the officials holding "State Board Examinations" stated she could pick "MSH" students from other schools just watching them work.

She was a member of the National League of Education. She “pushed” for better education for all students.

She was a truly professional in manner dress and behavior.

She was strict but fair.

She taught “Nurse Ethics” and required all girls to be strictly ethical with Drs, Nurses and patients.

The employees of Milledgeville State Hospital received medical and Hospital Care along with their families.

So student and nurses received a broad section of patient care.

There was no segregation of Patient and employee.

The Hospital had some very special surgeons, medical Drs, as well as Psychiatrist. Mrs. Jones stressed membership in School Alumna, District Nurses Association Georgia Nurses Association and

The National Nurses Association.

All instructors belonged to and supported the National League of Nurses Education.
